ncekici@epos.com.tr

She graduated from Marmara University Economics and Administrative Faculty, with a major in Economy. Then, she took her master's degree from Istanbul University in Money/Bank Department. Finally she specialized in Business Administration in Istanbul University Business Administration Faculty Managerial Economics Institute and ended her academic career.

After having worked in Turkey's leading companies for seven years as an executive, she entered real estate market in 1995. Until now, she worked in many projects. Neşecan ÇEKİCİ is EPOS Real Estate Consulting and Valuation Company's founder and managing partner.

She works as a solution partner with many companies, on international platforms, around Turkey in real estate development and investment areas.

ÇEKİCİ is a founding member of Istanbul Real Estate Commissioners and Consultants Chamber. She is a former advisor for the Board of Directors for the said organization. Also, ÇEKİCİ was the vice chairman for The International Real Estate Federation's Turkey department.

She still has active roles in non-governmental organizations related with real estate. She also is an active lecturer in Istanbul University Social Sciences Vocational School for Real Estate and Real Estate Development.

ÇEKİCİ takes role in seminars for strengthening women's role in social and economic lives and improving woman entrepreneurship within Woman Entrepreneurs Association of Turkey. She is also a member of professional organizations like Real Estate Platform of Turkey, Association of Valuation Experts, Urban Land Institute, and Appraisal Institute.

ÇEKİCİ has many research and articles on the market, a compilation on Long Term Strategic Planning for Business and a graduate thesis about Securitization. ÇEKİCİ has Valuation Expertise License from Capital Markets Board of Turkey.

She also earned a certificate from American Appraisal Institute by completing said organization's education modules about real estate valuation expertise for Turkey.

Neşecan ÇEKİCİ is currently the Chairman of LideBİR (The Association of Licenced Appraisal Companies). In January 2009, taken into consideration the occupational and academic studies, her ethical and sophisticated views and her ability to represent the real estate sector in the best way, Neşecan ÇEKİCİ was deemed worthy of "Real Estate Consultant of the Year" one of the "Traditional Service Awards" of Ekonometri, monthly magazine about Business World and Economics.
